

It is important that the Commission oppose changes which would relax current ownership rules. As one who has long followed radio broadcasting it is clear to me that further reductions serve to reduce local competition in the marketplace as well as diversity of points of view and control of broadcast formats including entertainment and "talk" shows.

Further relaxation is contrary to the public interest.